Conduct of Depositions for Phase IV Trial

Form of Notice: Where the noticing party intends to take a deposition related to a party's claimed (1) overlying groundwater rights and of the pumping of groundwater pursuant thereto for the periods of 2000-2004 and 2011-2012; or (2) right to or quantity of return flows to the Basin from imported water, the notice of deposition shall specify the scope of inquiry at such deposition. For notices of deposition of non-expert parties who filed declarations by January 31, 2013, the deposition notice shall specify by declaration item number which topics within the party's declaration require further testimony by the declarant and the nature of such inquiry. If a deponent who has filed a declaration intends to offer testimony at trial on matters outside the declaration, then such matters may be the subject of inquiry at the deposition whether or not specified in the notice of deposition.

All other portions of the CMO, as amended, remain unchanged.
