All rights and privileges under this license including method of diversion, method of use and quantity of water diverted are subject to the continuing authority of the Division of Water Resources in accordance with law and in the interest of the public welfare to prevent waste, unreasonable use, unreasonable method of use or unreasonable method of diversion of said water.

Reports shall be filed promptly by licensee on appropriate forms which will be provided for the purpose from time to time by the Division of Water Resources.

The right to the diversion and use of the water aforesaid hereby confirmed is restricted to the point of diversion herein specified and to the lands or place of use herein described.

This license is granted and said appropriator takes all rights herein mentioned subject to the terms and conditions set forth in Section 20 of Chapter 586, Statutes of 1913, as amended, which is as follows:

Sec. 20. All permits and licenses for the appropriation of water shall be under the terms and conditions of this act, and shall be effective for such time as the water actually appropriated under such permits and licenses shall actually be used for the social and beneficial purposes for which said water was appropriated, but no longer; and every such permit or license shall include the enumeration of conditions which such authorizations shall include all of the provisions of this section and likewise the statement that any appropriation of water, to be valid, must be made by a permit or license may be issued, shall take the same subject to such conditions as therein expressed; provided, that at any time during the period of twenty years after the granting of a license, the state or any city, city and county, municipal water district, irrigation district, lighting district or any political subdivision of the state, shall have the right to purchase the works and property of said steam, city, city and county, municipal water district, irrigation district, lighting district or political subdivision of the state so desiring to purchase the same, and in such event that the said owner of said works and property can not agree upon said purchase price, said price shall be determined in such manner as the state or any city, city and county, or other entity hereafter be determined in eminent domain proceedings. If it shall appear to the state water commission at any time after a permit or license is issued, as in this act provided that the permittee, or licensee, or the heirs, successors, or assigns of said permittee or licensee, has failed to put said water to such uses or beneficial purposes as were intended by the permittee or licensee as issued, or that the state water commission, after due notice to the permittee, has failed to require any of the conditions of such permit or license, or that the permittee or licensee, or the heirs, successors or assigns of said permittee or licensee, has revoked said permit or license, or that the permittee or licensee, or the heirs, successors or assigns of said permittee or licensee, or the holder of any rights, title or interest in the same, has failed to pay the amount of taxes or assessments imposed by the state or any city, city and county, municipal water district, irrigation district, lighting district or any political subdivision of the state, or otherwise, for the rights and property of any permittee or licensee, or the possessor of any rights granted, issued or acquired under the provisions of this act, the application for a permit by municipalities for the use of water for said municipalities or the irrigation districts, or lighting districts, or other entities hereinafter shall be considered first in right, irrespective of whether they are first in time; provided, however, that such application for a permit, or the granting thereof, of permission to any municipality to appropriate water, shall not authorize the appropriation of water for other than municipal purposes; and providing, further, that where permission is granted to any quantity of water in excess of the existing municipal needs therefor, that applying for a permit to any municipality to appropriate water for any quantity for the temporary appropriation of the excess of such permitted appropriation over and above the quantity being applied from time to time by such municipality; and providing, further, that in lieu of the granting of such temporary permits for appropriation, the state water commission may authorize such municipality to apply as to such municipality a permit for such date and after the date of the issuance of such permission to appropriate, as may be allowed for the application in the opinion of the state water commission, for the facility for taking, conveying and using the water, in its sole application it may do upon making just compensation for the facilities for the temporary use of said excess water, and which compensation, if not agreed upon between the municipality and said person, firm or corporation which constructed said facilities, may be determined in the manner provided by law for determining the value of property taken by and through eminent domain proceedings.
