Bolthouse has heard that all parties appropriating and groundwater in the Antelope Valley have not been named and served. It is unclear whether this information is accurate or not. Clearly all parties appropriating and groundwater in the Antelope Valley need to be joined as parties in order to litigate their appropriative, first in time, water rights and in order to impose a physical solution if necessary based upon the Mojave case.

Bolthouse hereby requests that the Court confirm with the purveyors as the Case Management Conference that all appropriators of groundwater in the Antelope Valley are named and served, or if not, confirm that they will be served in the near future.

Thank you for your courtesy and consideration of this request.

DATED: October 23, 2007

Respectfully submitted,
CLIFFORD & BROWN
