While clients can save money and Courts can become more efficient and generate revenue, CourtCall has the most impact upon practicing attorneys as it helps to give them their lives back. Attorneys can use the time they save using CourtCall to catch-up on other pressing matters, enjoy time with family and friends or otherwise take advantage of the time no longer spent traveling to and from Court. Call us for details. There are no subscriptions or equipment to buy.

COURTCALL VIDEO IS HERE!
CourtCall is equipping Courtrooms of interested Judges with its state-of-the-art, browser-based video conferencing platform, enabling full video participation for traditional CourtCall Appearances. Lawyers only need a computer with sufficient bandwidth and a webcam to view and/or share video in accordance with a Judge's preferences. To learn more about video options, please ask a CourtCall representative.

The foregoing information may have been obtained from court records which may not reflect recent calendar changes. If it is inaccurate because your appearance has been continued, please apply this information to the new date. If the matter is off calendar, you have no involvement in the case or you do not wish to use this service, please disregard this notice. Do not call the Court Clerk.

Our representatives are available to make presentations for your firm, your clients, Bar Associations or other groups. Please call to schedule a presentation.

Remote Appearances. Simplified.

CourtCall Appearances are available for over 2,000 Judges nationwide, with additional Courts being added monthly. Please visit our website at www.courtcall.com for a complete list of participating Courts and Judges across the US, Canada and other jurisdictions.
