

L a n d o
w
n e r s

Town Hall Meeting

Water Adjudication

W a t
e r
&
N e w
s

If you have received a class notice, and are searching for information regarding the water adjudication, please take this flyer.

- Learn about protecting your water rights.
- Find out how your tax dollars and ratepayers' monies are being used to take your water rights.
- Learn the importance of settling this lawsuit instead of spending decades fighting it in court!

Date: April 7, 2009

Time: 7:00 p.m.

Location: Lancaster Baptist Church, North Auditorium
4020 E. Lancaster Blvd. (40th St. East/Lancaster Blvd)

Phone: 661-274-9709

E-mail: exec@lacfb.org

Antelope Valley Groundwater Agreement Association (AGWA)

AGWA represents landowners in the Adjudication proceedings. The purpose is to represent a large number of landowners so their legal costs will be diluted between many parties. AGWA is dedicated to reaching a settlement that will keep the community whole and provide benefits for all parties in the Antelope Valley that they currently do not have. AGWA is represented by the largest water law firm in the United States.

Phone: 310 440-8862

E-mail: enebeker@roadrunner.com

LACFB Organization Information

LACFB is a voluntary, non-governmental, non-profit membership organization of agricultural producers and individuals that promote agriculture and agricultural education. Our members are also dedicated to the support and preservation of agriculture throughout Los Angeles County.