22 The Antelope Valley Watermaster submits as attached Exhibit A its Proposed Order after 23 the hearing on November 17, 2023. Counsel for the Watermaster and counsel for the Zamrzla
24 Parties could not agree as to the substance of the Proposed Order.

25 However, rather than submitting the two alternate final versions for a proposed order and 26 noting that the parties could not reach agreement on the substance of that order, the Zamrzlas have 27 instead submitted 37 pages of e-mail chains and multiple redlined drafts of the proposed order that 28 were circulated between counsel. Included but buried in this lengthy email chain is the 1 Watermaster's 13-line Proposed Order. The Watermaster, therefore, submits its Proposed Order as 2 a separate filing for purposes of clarity. The Watermaster believes the attached version more 3 accurately and fully captures this Court's comments at the hearing on November 17 as well as the 4 Court's explicit sentiments expressed in its Minute Order following the hearing.

5 Respectfully submitted,

23 This matter came on before the Honorable Jack Komar, sitting by assignment, for a

1 After consideration of the papers filed and oppositions thereto, and argument of counsel, 2 the Court declined to find that an automatic stay applied. However, the Court exercised its 3 discretion to grant the Zamrzlas' Motion to Stay the Watermaster's Renewed Motion as to the 4 recovery of Replacement Water Assessments to a date after the Court of Appeal issues its ruling
5 in the pending appeal filed by the Zamrzlas. The Court expressed no opinion on whether to stay
6 any other aspect of the Judgment, including Administrative Assessments. Therefore, the Court 7 makes the following order:

8 The Zamrzlas' Motion for Stay is GRANTED and the Watermaster's Renewed Motion is 9 continued to a date after the Court of Appeal issues its ruling in the pending appeal filed by the 10 Zamrzlas. The Court's Order makes no determination as to the Zamrzlas' responsibility for, or the 11 Watermaster's entitlement to, Administrative Assessments.

12 IT IS SO ORDERED.
