TO ALL PARTIES AND TO THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

BOLTHOUSE PROPERTIES, LLC and WM. BOLTHOUSE FARMS, INC. (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Bolthouse") provide the following Case Management Conference Statement.

STATUS OF MEDIATION

As the Court is undoubtedly aware, the parties conducted additional days of mediation with Justice Robie. Although the allocation issue has not been completely resolved, the parties are very close to allocation of water rights within the safe yield determined by the Court. Some creative alternatives need to be considered in order to resolve the claims of a few additional parties. Various parties are considering alternatives in this regard and Justice Robie will be meeting with these parties prior to the next mediation date scheduled for February 29, 2012, at which time it is hoped that all parties will be in agreement to an allocation of water rights.

NEXT PHASE OF TRIAL PROCEEDINGS

Based upon the flurry of filings recently made to the Court requesting findings on legal issues, it is clear that attempting to resolve these issues at present without factual and legal context, is diverting attention of the parties from spending time working on the allocation. Additionally, the flurry of filings make clear that various parties would like to have different discrete issues tried in the next phase of trial.

Depending upon whether the mediation results in a settlement by most or all parties, the issues left to be tried in the matter will be different and probably much more limited. Accordingly, it is premature to determine what the next phase of trial will be and/or a date for the next phase of trial. Obviously when the trial should be set will be dependent upon the extent of discovery, motions and expert analysis which will be necessary to prepare for such a phase of trial.
