

RAND F. HERBERT

Principal/Vice President, JRP Historical Consulting, LLC

Mr. Herbert's academic fields of specialization were in California and Western United States history. For more than thirty-four years, Mr. Herbert has worked as a consulting historian on a wide variety of historical research and cultural resources management projects, as a researcher, writer, and project manager. He has managed, written, or worked on building inventory and evaluation projects for a variety of government agencies such as Caltrans and the Department of Defense. He has given numerous lectures on the topics of public history and has provided expert witness services and testimony in more than a dozen cases or administrative proceedings. Based on his level of education and experience, Mr. Herbert qualifies as a historian/architectural historian under the United States Secretary of the Interior's Professional Qualification Standards (as defined in 36 CFR Part 61).

Professional Background

Mr. Herbert has taught history at community colleges in Sacramento and Solano counties and regularly teaches a graduate seminar in public history at California State University, Sacramento (2001–present). In 1990, he was elected chairman of the California Council for the Promotion of History (CCPH) and served a two-year term. He served as one of CCPH's representatives on California Resources Secretary Douglas Wheeler's Historic Preservation Task Force (1992–1994); and on the National Cultural Alliance's Cultural Awareness Campaign, California Steering Committee. Mr. Herbert is a Registered Professional Historian (#508) with CCPH and a member of the National Council on Public History, California Historical Society, and Ninth Circuit Court Historical Society. Mr. Herbert earned his MAT in History for the University of California Davis and his BA in History from the University of California, Berkeley.
