Sheldon, Attached you will find information you requested we voluntarily provide. To the extent that any of your letters, e-mails or other communications suggest that we agreed to anything broader than what we are providing herewith, such communications are inaccurate. We are providing this information without waiving any objection we could or might assert in the future, without admitting that this information is relevant, without agreeing to provide any further documents, without admitting that this information provides you with any water rights and without agreeing to provide you with any other information. As we have discussed in the past, you already have this information or should know this information given that you own the property where the water was used. You are causing us extra expense attempting to collect what you should have already collected.
